A brief report of the activity :

The Commerce Association organized a Workshop on “Financial Literacy – Crucial Aspect for the Future Commerce Students” in association with RCU Belagavi and Mentors for Kids, Bengaluru.

The Chief Guest, Prof. B. S. Navi, Director, Pandit Deen Dayal Upadhyaya Study Chair, RCU, addressed the students and highlighted the relevance of financial literacy for commerce graduates.

The Resource Person, Dr. Arpana Bhat, LEAD Institution Partnership, Mentors for Kids, Bengaluru, enlightened the students on empowering commerce learners through free learning opportunities and career guidance. She emphasized how such initiatives build confidence, provide role models, and impart valuable life skills. She also explained how experienced mentors guide, support, and advise students to enhance both personal and professional growth, along with discussing the benefits and initiatives of the MFK Foundation.

Outcome of the Program

Students gained awareness about the importance of financial literacy and its role in shaping their future career and personal financial decisions.

They understood the benefits of mentorship, career guidance, and learning opportunities provided by the MFK Foundation for their overall growth.
