A brief report of the activity :

The literature students study the History of English Literature and how it progressed from the ancient times till twentieth century. The British Literature and literary figure, the American Literature and its literary figures, the famous literary figures of Europe and their works in English translation etc. will be understood by students well if they try to understand the physical features of the continents of the world. This visit surely enriched students' understanding about the Physical Geography of the World, with special focus on Europe, North America and South America. This visit helped \ them to understand the Literary History of these continents in depth.
