A brief report of the activity :

The resource persons of this English Certificate Course – “Communication Skills in English” carefully designed the syllabus, which comprised the Basic English Grammar Topics essential for the State and Central Competitive Examinations. This course was of 30 hours. The students were taught in a lively and interactive manner within the classroom, so that they would overcome their fear of communicating in English language. The grammatical rules and regulations were explained to the students effectively so that they achieve fluency in their speaking and writing. The students were given worksheets to solve in the class as well as at home for practicing grammar topic. The whole programme was successful in helping students for the state or central level competitive exams.
