A brief report of the activity :

The resource person Shri. Harshad Subhash, Echenar Consultant, Foreign Language, Sangli delivered a lecture on the vast opportunities Japanese language learning will open up for Indian Students. Japan and India have a very strong diplomatic ties and our relations can be traced by from the ancient times. Mr. Harshad Subhash is a Japanese Language teacher. He not only teaches students the Japanese language, but about their culture, traditions and values.

Learning Japanese will open new avenues for Indian students. They can pursue their career in Japan or India with the Japanese and Indian Companies as interpreter, translator, educationist, etc. Mr. Harshad Subhash thought that language learning is an interesting and cerebral activity and if students can learn it with passion surely it will help them in the progress of their career.
